SPRING INTO READING

A Southwest Michigan Book Drive

United Way of Southwest Michigan presents SPRING INTO READING, a book drive held in Southwest Michigan this March. Our goal is to collect 5,000 books for Southwest Michigan kids. One of the best ways to improve childhood literacy rates is to encourage kids to read at home, but many children living in poverty do not have access to books in their homes. This book drive will get books into their hands and help them discover a new world of words. Let's work together to ensure there's no shortage of books for any family in our community! Please join us by being a book drive drop location.
